

Excel in Basketball Camp Legend

Lexy Tamony

5'7" Guard

Carondelet High School, UC Berkeley

Excel Career: Lexy was a strong guard who was a great All-Around Athlete. Lexy excelled at every sport she played. Her competitive fire and mental and physical toughness would have made her a collegiate player in any sport she chose. Excel's influence on her was great as she cited Coach Allocco as one of the key influences in her coaching career. T

Career: Lexy was a standout player at Carondelet High School and earned a scholarship to UC Berkeley. She was a letter winner in 1995, 1996 and 1997 for the Golden Bears where she provided valuable time as a tough, hard-nosed guard who could knock down the big shot. Lexy is currently a high school teacher and was the Head Coach for the Women's Team at Heritage High School.

Excel Awards Won:

Outstanding Player, NBA: 1991

One one One Champion: 1991

All Star Selection: 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991

Free Throw Champion: 1991