

Excel in Basketball Camp Legend

Nicole McCallister

6'3" Guard

Clayton Valley High School, Oregon State University

Excel Career: Nicole was one of the top female players ever at Excel. She competed with the best and gave her best each day. She was a great ballhandler and lights out shooter who competed with the girls and the boys. Attributed her success to playing and competing with the boys each day. Coached at the High School Level at Jesse Bethel Vallejo and continued to coach at Excel for many years.

Career: Nicole had a brilliant high school career at Clayton Valley where she was one of the top female players in history. Nicole earned a basketball scholarship to Oregon State University. Nicole left OSU having earned four letters and leaving her mark on the record books. She was the single season record holder in 3 point attempts and was fourth in Free Throw Percentage. Nicole gives back to the community as a teacher and high school coach.

Excel Awards Won:

Outstanding Player, NBA: 1990, 1991

Most Inspirational, NBA: 1990

All Star Selection: 1990, 1990, 1991, 1992

Best Defensive Player, NBA: 1992

One on One Champion: 1991, 1992