

Excel in Basketball Camp Legend

Phil Galvin

6'4" Guard

Antioch High School, Santa Rosa J.C, Mount Saint Mary's College

Excel Career: Phil attended Excel prior to his outstanding career at Antioch High School. Phil was a dedicated, hard-working player who had a passion for the game and for improvement. He still has those outstanding qualities and still remains a part of Excel through visiting camp and attending Coach Allocco's clinics.

Career: Phil averaged 18 points and 4.5 rebounds as a senior at Antioch High School. After a brief stint at Santa Rosa Junior College, Phil earned a scholarship to Mount Saint Mary's College where he played for the legendary Coach Jim Phelan. Coach Phelan has the national record for games coached with 1339 games in his 49 year career. Phil was a great scorer and solid teammate who stood out throughout his career. In his sophomore season, Phil scored 21 points in the second half in a win over Dayton. Phil continues his commitment to the game as he has served as a collegiate assistant coach at the University of San Francisco, coached at the high school level, and was the Director of Basketball at the Olympic Club in San Francisco. Today he is the General Manager of VillaSports Health Club in Beaverton, Oregon.
