

Excel in Basketball Camp Legend

Steven Dietschy

6'2" Forward

Las Lomas High School, University of Hawaii

Excel Career: Steven was an undersized big man who made his presence felt around the basket. The younger brother to Excel player and coach Brian Dietschy, he took a backseat to no one. A talented and skilled player he was an exceptional basketball and football player at Las Lomas High School.

Career: Steven was an outstanding high school basketball player who migrated to football when he received a football scholarship to the University of Hawaii. Steve was an outstanding outside 6'2", 235 pound linebacker. Steve was a mainstay until a serious knee injury ended his collegiate football career.

Excel Awards Won:

Outstanding Player, Big East: 1989

One on One Champion: 1990

All Star Selection: 1989, 1990, 1991, 1993