

Excel in Basketball Camp Legend

Amanda Green

5'9" Forward

Carondelet High School, Idaho State University

Excel Career: Amanda competed in the second camp in Excel History and was one of the first female players to grace the hardwood of Excel. She attended the camp in junior high school when it was conducted at Athenian School in Danville. Amanda was a fine all around player who dominated games with her outstanding post skills.

Career: After her junior high years at Excel, Amanda played high school basketball at Carondelet High School where she was an outstanding player. A great shooting touch along with her great inside game and rebounding prowess earned her a basketball scholarship to Idaho State where she won three Varsity letters. Amanda was one of the first Excel players to earn a scholarship to college. She continued to work at Excel as a coach where she continued to influence and inspire our campers.
