

Excel in Basketball Camp Legend

Bobby Callaway

6'1" Center

Northgate High School, Notre Dame College

Excel Career: Bobby was a regular at camp from 1990-1996. He was a tough, hard-nosed player who was known as a "loose ball guy." He won many awards at camp and learned the practice patterns and skills that would allow him to be so successful at the high school and collegiate level.

Career: Bobby became a legend at Northgate where he played the center position at just 6'1". He was an amazing post defender and regarded as one of the toughest players to ever wear a Bronco jersey. His efforts were instrumental in Northgate's State Championship and two Northern California Regional Titles. Bobby went on to play at Notre Dame College in Belmont where he had a fine career.
