

Excel in Basketball Camp Legend

Leigh Gregory

5'10" Guard

Carondelet High School, UC Berkeley

Excel Career: Leigh's skills went through the roof as she competed with the boys throughout her camp experiences. Leigh was a tireless worker and committed to her goal of playing Division I basketball. She had an outstanding career at Carondelet and then took it to a different level with her play at the collegiate level.

Career: Leigh was a four year starter at CAL from 2001-2005. She was team captain in her senior season and earned all Pac 10 athletic and academic honorable mention as a senior. She finished her career ranked 11th in career points with 1136 and fifth in career free throws made with 280. Leigh is a great leader and continues her dedication to the game and to the development of young players. Today, Leigh is a college coach at the University of Minnesota.

Excel Awards Won:

Most Inspirational Player, College Division: 1997

One on One Champion: 1996, 1997, 1997, 1998